We really hope everyone enjoys posting and interacting in the Vankleek Hill forums, and to ensure that they remain an enjoyable place, we're taking a zero tolerance policy in our moderation of them. Moderation in all our forums will be robust, foregoing the normal progression of deletions/suspensions and proceeding directly to a one month final warning suspension, or permanent ban of all posting privileges for infractions of the posting policies or guidelines.

Here are some key points to keep in mind while posting here:

- Zero Tolerance: This is a zero tolerance forum. Being ignorant of or purposefully disobeying the intent of these forums, the forum Code of Conduct, and/or these guidelines will be dealt with strictly.
- This is Not an Off-Topic Forum: The VKHGC forums are specifically and purposefully labeled with very specific topics. Discussion outside of these specific topics, like all other forums, is not allowed and will be moderated with zero tolerance.
- No Politics/Religion: There is no tolerance for discussion of politics or religion in our forums. While we appreciate people's beliefs and political ideals, they are not appropriate to be discussed or mentioned within these walls, even if brought up objectively.
- No Hatred: Hatred against individuals or groups in any manner, for any reason, will not be tolerated.
- No Illicit Topics: This is mostly geared toward warning against any intent to discuss drug or alcohol -use, but can and will extend to any topics of an illegal nature that are deemed to not be pertinent to the discussions allowed in this forum.
- Moderation is At Our Discretion: Like all moderation, we are within our right to take (or not take) actions we deem necessary based purely on our discretion.

All of that scary stuff out of the way, please go, talk, and enjoy the Vankleek Hill Gun Club forums!
